

What's on at Coppice Library and Wellbeing Centre - Digital

Trafford Libraries offers a full e-library of free services for all of its customers. You can download audio and e-books, magazines and comics, search your family's past and even learn a new language. Go to trafford.gov.uk/libraries and click on the E-libraries link to find out more. Here is a run-down of what's on offer:

Find My Past

If you go to findmypast.co.uk using our guest WiFi or one of our public computers, you can access many historical records free of charge. Call Trafford Libraries on 0161 912 3189 for more information.

E-books and e-audio books

Borrow, download and enjoy here
Your library in one app.

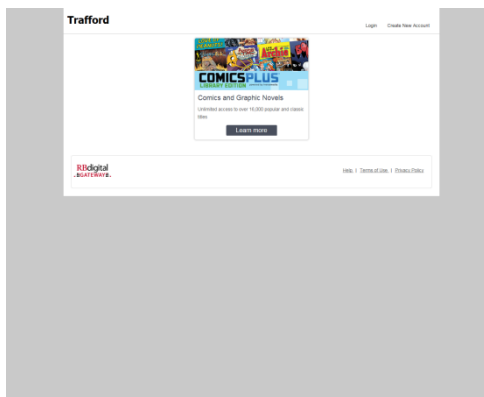

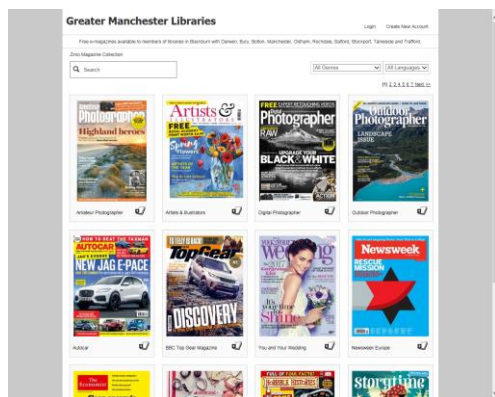

Trafford Libraries has partnered with BorrowBox to offer a greater selection of e-books and e-audiobooks.

All you have to do to register, is go to trafford.gov.uk/libraries and click on the link to go to the BorrowBox website. Alternatively, download the app on your Apple or Android device and register using Trafford Libraries as your library when prompted (Trafford Libraries will come up as an option when you begin typing the letters). All you need is your library card number and PIN. If you don't know them, or you would like help with registering, you can call Trafford Libraries on 0161 912 3189.

As well as allowing you to read and listen to books on your smart-device, you can also download them to your PC and transfer them to a compatible e-reader using Adobe Digital Editions.

Please ask at reception if you would like to borrow an e-reader.

E-magazines and E-comics

Read full digital copies of your favourite magazines for free from your computer, smartphone or tablet. Magazines are available covering everything from food to computers, and music to art. Titles include Hello!; BBC Good Food; Amateur Photographer; BBC Top Gear and Cosmopolitan . Borrow an unlimited number of magazines to keep forever or delete when you want. Just go to rbdigital.com/greatermanchester and create a new account using your library card number (including the TRP).

Comics Plus Library Edition gives you unlimited access to thousands of digital graphic novels and comics on any web-connected device.

View titles through your web browser on any computer, tablet or smartphone with an internet connection. Read comics on your tablet or smartphone. Browse by age, genre, publisher, comic, and instantly checkout your favourites. Access comics whenever you want them - no holds or waiting. The Comics Plus website is designed to be used on the web so it is not necessary to download software.

To access the service, go to rbdigital.com/trafford where you will first need to create an account (using your library card number). If you have an Apple device, the Comics Plus Library Edition app is also available through the Apple App Store. An Android app is in development also.

Transparent Language Online

Use your library card to sign up to Transparent Language Online – go to library.transparent.com/trafford and start learning a new language online today. From Afrikaans to Zulu, choose from over a hundred languages to improve your language skills for business or pleasure.

If you would like further information about any of these services, please ask at reception. You can also go online to Trafford Libraries at trafford.gov.uk/libraries or call us on 0161 912 3189

Check out our What's on Guide for a list of events held every week at Coppice Library and Wellbeing Centre – you can pick one up from reception or find it on our website at coppicelibraryandwellbeing.org.uk/whats-on
